

7-18-61

UM 13B-4

177

This is a black and white aerial photograph of a forested landscape. The terrain is covered in dense trees, with several light-colored, winding paths or roads visible. In the center of the image, the number '177' is handwritten in dark ink. The overall texture is grainy, typical of an aerial photograph from the early 1960s.