

not find one to come to us himself. whilst I went to the school house, where I soon met the viewers Coffman & Reed & Chairman Keightley & Lawson. with Daniel Simmons & his team whom we had found it necessary to employ to transport our provisions, blankets, fuel, stakes &c. over a desert of thirty miles in extent. we immediately proceeded as follows

South 38°	East 28	10	angle in Counting fence near Shastley
"	42 "	14	mile Stake in lane due E of Pils House.
"	80 "	15 "	" Sand Hills
"	80 "	16 "	"
"	14 "		To wagon track
" 32°	" 66 "	17 "	"
" 30 "	" 80 "	18 "	"
" 30 "	" 80 "	19 "	" Entered alkali hollow
" 30 "	" 3 "		"
" 13 "	West 16 "		"
" 16 "	East 61 "	20 "	" Road leaves hollow
" 70 "	" 30 "		Summit of Ridge
" 72 "	" 50 "	21 "	"
" 30 "	" 80 "	22 "	" intersecting old Road.
" 17 "	" 80 "	23 "	" City bears N 23° W.
" 5 "	" 80 "	24 "	"
" 5 "	" 43 "		2 nd Entrance alkali hollow
" 34°	" 37 "	25 "	"
" 50°	" 80 "	26 "	" Camped night Dec 7 th

My Son Winfield not being able to find a chairman to fix Lawsons place had obeyed my Order, followed. & overtook us at our first entrance to alkali hollow the being now too late for him to return to the settlement through the snow. I decided upon keeping him to serve as axeman & marker which duty he performed satisfactorily

Friday Dec the 8th

Present Levi Reed - David Coffman. Viewers -
 " George Lawson - H. Keightley Chairman
 " D. Simmons - L. Reed. Viewers
 " W. S. Wilson Axeman.

E. A. Wilson Dir^r

We proceed at an early hour as follows.

South 65°	East 18	27	mile Stake
" 55 "	" 62 "		"
" 55 "	" 43 "		"
" 68 "	" 14 "		To alkali spring