

County Court July Term 1870

Rd 11

2nd day the 8th

In the matter of a County Road Commencing at the boundary line between the State of Oregon and Washington Territory near Chase running to the Blue Mountain 567 day came the Third Reading of the Petition of petitioners of said proposed road commencing at a point on the boundary line between the State of Oregon and Washington Territory at the land claim of Isaac and Harriette Manning thence from said land claim East & South to the North East corner of J. W. Northrup's land claim thence to the house of George De Haven thence to a road known as the Linkland Road thence north of the land claim of W. M. Willis thence along said Linkland road to the Summit of the Blue Mountains, and it appearing to the Court that there is no hindrance in file against the location of said road and it further appearing that said road would be of public utility to said County It is now therefore ordered by the Court that said road be declared a public highway thence in accordance with said Survey and the Report of said various persons in file
